

First symposium on
The History of Mediterranean Archaeology in the Low Countries

8 March 2019 – Rijksmuseum van Oudheden, Leiden, Leemanszaal

10.00 - 10.35	Opening & Keynote	12.55 - 13.05	Presentation of TMA 60 to Marianne Kleibrink
10.00 - 10.05	Jeltsje Stobbe (UvA) - welcome
10.05 - 10.35	Ruurd Halbertsma (RMO) - keynote „Benefit & Honour“: the first archaeological expeditions to the Mediterranean	13.05 - 14.00	LUNCH (self providing)
10.35 - 10.55	Repository initiatives for future historical use	14.00 - 15.15	Histories of methodologies
10.35 - 10.45	Anne Versloot (UvA) & Laurien de Gelder (APM) Assembling archives: from documentation to access	14.00 - 14.25	Jan Driessen (ULouvain) „Belgian“ interests in the Greek past
10.45 - 10.55	Anita Casarotto (ULeiden, KNIR) Fasti Online Survey: a KNIR-led project to unlock survey data of the Mediterranean	14.25 - 14.50	Mark van Strydonck (IRPA/KIK) & Guy de Mulder (UGent) The enigmatic quicklime burials of the Balearic Islands
10.55 - 11.15	Coffee / tea	14.50 - 15.15	Bart Wagemakers (Hogeschool Utrecht) Three dimensions and sources for analyzing past excavations
11.15 - 12.55	Histories of archaeologists and collections	15.15 - 15.30	Coffee / tea
11.15 - 11.40	Eline Verburg (UvA) Between Cortona and Leiden: the Corazzi collection	15.30 - 16.50	Histories of methodologies
11.40 - 12.05	Vincent Oeters (KU Leuven) From insignificant to ‚the capital‘: Jean Capart and the making of Belgian Egyptology	15.30 - 15.55	Marianne Kleibrink (RUGroningen) Reflections on art-historical methods in relation to Mediterranean Archaeology
12.05 - 12.30	Asker Pelgrom (KNIR) Ranuccio Bianchi Bandinelli at the Rijksuniversiteit Groningen, 1930-1933	15.55 - 16.20	Steven Hijmans (UAlberta) The place of Art History in Mediterranean archaeologies of the Low Countries: from 19th century praxis to 21st century perspectives
12.30 - 12.55	Carina Hasenzagl (UGent) A Dutch pioneer in Roman Africa: the ceramic surveys (1960-1972) of J.W. Salomonson	16.20 - 16.55	Discussion: A future history of Mediterranean archaeology Moderator: Miguel-John Versluys (ULeiden)
		17.00	Drinks at De Keyzer, Kaiserstraat 2-4, Leiden (first drink offered by TMA)

Organisation

The symposium is organized by Platform Argos for the History of Archaeology on the occasion of the 30th anniversary of Tijdschrift voor Mediterrane Archeologie (TMA), and supported by Rijksmuseum van Oudheden and ARCHON Dutch Graduate School for Archaeology.
 Please register at symposium@mediterrane-archeologie.nl

Rijksmuseum van  oudheden

